Welcome to the first newsletter of 2024. Thanks for your support last year – please keep it going!

Quiz and supper - another sell-out quiz night in November and a great time had by all! Well done to the winning team and all the lucky raffle prize winners too. Thank you to everyone who was part of a team as well as all those who helped make it happen. This event is a good fundraiser for the village hall coffers.

Christmas market – a great success and we received some lovely feedback from the traders! Thanks to all the 'shoppers' who came along on 3rd December, and well done to the winner of the fabulous Christmas hamper raffle prize.

Christmas trombones – a wonderful evening of festive music and carols, over £300 raised for Prostate Cancer UK.

Thanks and well done to Derrick and the Bourton Bones!

Coming up at the village hall ...

Panto: Beauty and the Beast

Friday 26 January – Saturday 27 January

Christmas may be long gone, but Panto season is in full swing with rehearsals picking up a pace now! Come and join us in the French village of Lille le Pinque, where the chocolate-maker, Monsieur le Bonbon, discovers a mysterious castle hidden in a deep, dark forest. Meet the talking candelabra the talking clock and the talking tea pot, the beautiful Belle and a really ugly beast. Will village know-it-all Gaston Lagrandetete win Belle's hand? Or will she fall for someone else? Saturday night performance sold out!

Tickets £8 adults and £4 children (+ small booking fee)

Book tickets at www.ticketsource.co.uk/bdfvillagehall

Curry night: Saturday 17 February – 7.30pm

Just the thing for a cold February night! Please join us for an Indian themed social evening. Selection of starters, choice of three curries, including vegetarian, and all the bits, plus ice cream for dessert.

Book tickets at www.ticketsource.co.uk/bdfvillagehall

Delicious food, Indian music and themed quiz. Why not get a table of friends together?

3-course meal for just £18
(+ small booking fee)

Live & Local - Despite everything, price still includes biscuits: Saturday 6 April - 7.30pm

A fine satirical solo show from a terrific deadpan Jewish humourist, Naomi Paul. Topical stories, Victoria Wood-style comic songs and short conversational 'biscuit breaks'. Brought by Live & Local, the initiative that brings live shows to village and rural venues, this event is a comedy-cabaret with theatre and storytelling at its centre.

LIVE & LOCAL

Tickets £12.50
(+ small booking fee)

Adults/older children
(14+)
